Highlight of the week

This week, children from Portway graduated from the Brilliant Club competition at Kings College London.

Zuriel, from London Bridge, reflected, "I really enjoyed the graduation at Kings College and the tutorials with the university lecturer because it has inspired me to work hard and fulfil my ambition to study medicine at university".

Forthcoming Events

Year 2 on Tour!

On Tuesday, Year 2 went on a city walk along the River Thames. They enjoyed experiencing lots of different London landmarks and they knew facts about each one.

The children were amazed by The Shard and they loved getting to eat next to the London Eye.

Gardening

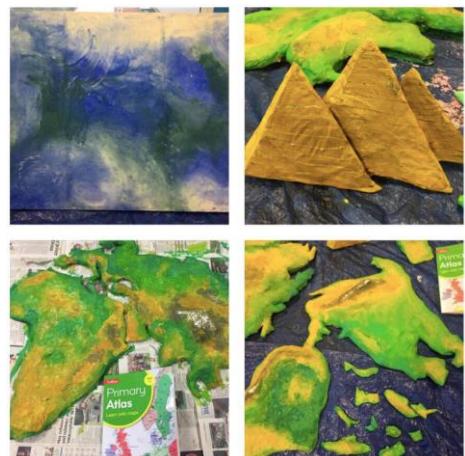

Gardening club returned to Year 4 this week.

This time, the children learned to 'heckle'. The children worked in groups and got to experience preparing yarn to be used to weave clothing.
